

Introduced by Senator Aanestad

February 2, 2010

An act to amend Section 4800 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to veterinary medicine.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 932, as introduced, Aanestad. Veterinary medicine.

Existing law provides for the regulation of veterinary medicine by the Veterinary Medical Board.

This bill would make a technical, nonsubstantive change to a provision related to veterinary medicine.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 4800 of the Business and Professions
2 Code is amended to read:
3 4800. There is in the Department of Consumer Affairs a
4 Veterinary Medical Board in which the administration of this
5 chapter is vested. The board ~~consists~~ shall consist of seven
6 members, three of whom shall be public members.
7 This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 2011, and, as
8 of January 1, 2012, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which 9 becomes effective on or before January 1, 2012, deletes or extends 10 the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

- 1 The repeal of this section renders the board subject to the review
- 2 provided for by Division 1.2 (commencing with Section 473).
